Kathryne Pirtle is a freelance musician doing orchestral, chamber and solo work. She is a member of the Lake Forest Symphony, Chicago Opera Theatre, River Cities Philharmonic; she often performs with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and will play with the Lyric Opera Orchestra this fall. She has been heard live on WFMT's national chamber music broadcasts. Currently, she has a performing and teaching fellowship with the Chicago Chamber Musicians, and she teaches privately at New Trier High School. Ms. Pirtle has taught at Bradley University where she received her Masters Degree and at Indiana University where she pursued doctoral studies. She has also studied extensively with Larry Combs, Principal Clarinetist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Diana Schmück performs as a chamber musician and is a vocal coach and piano teacher in the Chicago area. Ms. Schmück has performed with the South Bend New Music Ensemble, the International Chamber Music Institute, the Metro-Manila Symphony Orchestra, the DePaul University Orchestra, the Zion Community Orchestra, and the Chicago Civic Orchestra. Her duo-piano team, the Debriana Duo, was recently well received at a performance for the American Liszt Society in Washington, D.C. Ms. Schmück was professor of music at Bethel College in Indiana. She has been a Chicago Chamber Musician (CCM) Fellow since 1991 and is the designer and coordinator of CCM's model music development program at Sullivan High School. This summer she conducted piano workshops at Ravinia and DePaul University. Ms. Schmück holds a Ph.D. in piano and chamber music from the Northwestern University School of Music.
